

Journal of Global Business Management and Economics (JGBME)

Editorial Policy for Business Management and Economics Journal

Scope and Focus:

The Journal of Global Business Management and Economics \(JGBME\) aims to publish high-quality, original research in the fields of business, management, and economics. The journal welcomes empirical, theoretical, and methodological studies that contribute to the understanding and advancement of business practices, economic policies, management strategies, and organizational behavior.

Peer Review Process:

All submitted manuscripts undergo a double-blind peer review process. This means both the reviewers and authors remain anonymous throughout the review. Each manuscript is reviewed by at least two independent experts in the relevant field to ensure the quality, originality, and relevance of the research. The editorial team makes the final decision based on the reviewers' feedback.

Open Access Policy:

The journal follows an open-access policy, ensuring that all articles are freely available to the public without subscription or paywall barriers. This enables wide dissemination of knowledge and enhances the impact of published research.

Ethical Standards:

Authors must ensure that their research adheres to ethical guidelines, including the protection of human subjects, avoidance of plagiarism, and accurate representation of data. The journal employs plagiarism detection software to screen all submissions. Any unethical behavior will result in immediate rejection of the manuscript.

Conflicts of Interest:

Authors are required to disclose any potential conflicts of interest that could influence the research results or interpretations. Reviewers must also declare any conflict of interest and may refuse themselves if necessary.
